Group Meditation New Moon Cycle Seed Thought

August 13 through September 10

Verily, the Era of the Mother of the World is based upon realization of the heart... Let us not forget that for each important achievement the Feminine Principle is essential as a foundation and essence. The heart cannot open to the Subtle World if it is not understood through a special achievement. Heart #68

September 11 through October 10

The work of the experts will be sorely needed, but the understanding interest and the sustaining power of those whose hearts are aflame with love can alone make their work possible. ...above all else, the solution must be found in the uprising of goodwill in the hearts of men. DINA 2 P.365-6

Revelations

“Therefore, the call goes out at this time for hierarchical workers to reveal with greater emphasis the fact of the Hierarchy.” The Rays and the Initiations P. 300

A very large part of the problem we have with both this Ashramic assignment and also with the coupled assignment regarding the reappearance of the Christ has to do with our lack of understanding regarding the art of revelation, and our fixation on the dense physical plane of appearances.

Revelation is dependent upon recognition. The externalization of the Hierarchy and revealing the fact of the Hierarchy are two ways of saying the same thing. However, what is seldom considered is that recognition and therefore revelation is relative to one's point of view.

Dense Physical Fixation

Because of our fixation regarding the dense physical plane, we habitually, and frequently unconsciously, think of the externalization and or manifestation in terms of dense physical appearance. Thus in order to accept the fact of the Hierarchy as an existing entity, we think that people need to actually see who or what they think of as members of the Hierarchy in dense physical bodies performing in ways that they think Hierarchs or spiritual beings of the 5th Kingdom would perform. Likewise, we think of the reappearance of the Christ in terms that has a being occupying a dense physical body rather suddenly at some point in time somehow showing up and walking around on the planet.

Undoubtedly, we have been conditioned to think this way by the past 2 or 3 thousand years of living under the influence of two very powerful thoughtforms. One is the relatively ancient Great Lie which fosters the illusions of materialism and separation. The illusion of materialism holds that anything other than the material world is illusory. The doctrine of separation maintains that each of us is a separate and totally independent being. Under this two-fold lie, there is no Hierarchy to externalize, and humanity is doomed to an apparent life of struggle for a relatively meaningless existence in a world of inadequate and dwindling resources.

The Dark Paradigm

The other thoughtform, which is set up against the thoughtform of so called “godless materialism”, is equally bleak in its options. In this dark paradigm, God exists all right, but He is separated from and located outside of humanity in some perfect state of heavenly bliss which, because of our inherent unworthiness, is totally unreachable by us during our lives. After death, access to His Presence is strictly controlled by the Spiritual TSA (Transmigration Security Agency), and only the Chosen Few can pass thorough their devotion detectors.

Thus in this second paradigm, Humanity is separated from God and from each other as well as being unworthy, or downright evil.

Laid out like this, the above paradigms seem ridiculous. However, it is easy to document that vast numbers of humans are completely under the influence of these very powerful, Pre-Aquarian thoughtforms.

These thoughtforms are the current drivers of “endless” war, of our economic systems, of our separative relationships with one another on both individual and national levels. In spite of some mighty advances, they are now and have been for centuries at the root of our political systems. They are being reinforced 24/7 through media of all kinds.

This is the environment into which we need “...to reveal with greater emphasis the fact of the Hierarchy.” What we need to realize is that people simply will not be able to see either the Christ or the Hierarchy while looking through the windows of these Pre-Aquarian thoughtforms. Also, as we know, we cannot reveal the new using the methods of the paradigms in which the cause of the problems lie.

The Art of Revelation

If we are going to have any success with this assignment, we are going to have to learn to use new approaches. So, we need to rethink or maybe even “first think” about the “art of revelation.” And a starting point is to just move out of the blockages of materialism and self denunciation which still, perhaps unconsciously, affect our visions and actions.

Most of the individuals who read Thoughtline are relatively free of these limitations; however many of us still think, in a kind of knee jerk unconscious reflex, of the externalization and reappearance in terms of something outside of humanity coming into the planet and “appearing”. Partly, this is an accurate assumption; however, it seems flawed in that it does not fully understand, or perhaps utilize the process or “art of revelation.” Revelation is the process of creation. Creation has a number of identifiable, to use inadequate language, procedures.

In the above comment D.K. says, “Therefore, the call goes out at this time for hierarchical workers to reveal with greater emphasis the fact of the Hierarchy.” The call is for “Hierarchal Workers”. We know that when D.K. makes comments like this he probably has in mind a lot of individuals about whom we know nothing. But I think he also very definitely has in mind those people, disciples, who make up what we call the worldwide esoteric community. A little earlier in this passage D.K. says that, “Revelation will come when the world disciples and initiates have perfected the art of revelation.”

It seems apparent to me that this burden, rests squarely on our shoulders, and we are uniquely qualified to implement it. We are uniquely qualified because we are meditators. It is meditation, or as it is know by one of its more esoteric names, “The Divine Art of Revelation” that enables us to contact the Hierarchy and the Christ. It is the art of revelation that enables us to bring the essence of those contacts back into the worlds of form and, through the art of revelation or perhaps you would prefer another of its more modern names, the Creative Process of Internalization, embody and thus reveal them.

are the burdens,
by them

So, the fact that many of us still think of the externalization and reappearance in terms of something outside of humanity coming into the planet and “appearing” is relatively correct. However, this “something” is only outside of, or apparently, separated from humanity because it lies in a formless region of consciousness which is beyond the reach of our habitual state of awareness.

Even so, this region of consciousness is and has, for a very long time, been easily reachable through the art of revelation or meditation. We cannot reveal this level of reality by proclaiming that it exists. Been there, done that for eons. It does not work.

The only way that this level of life can be made manifest in the lower three worlds in a fashion that will be visible or revealed to others is if it comes through us, through our equipment. It will be revealed when we are able to embody, and become the living, walking models of what the 5th Kingdom is. As we gradually become these living models, we will be able to demonstrate that which D.K. calls “loving synthesis in action.”

Many of us have long been saying that the externalization and reappearance are, like everything else under the Sun, unfolding processes of the Grand Design, movements in the Symphony of Creation. The fact is that the Hierarchy is externalizing or being revealed right now. We understand that revelation is dependent upon recognition, and that recognition and therefore revelation is relative to one's point of view. If the point of view is fixed in the paradigms of the Great Lie, there is no way that either of these revelations will be recognized.

On the other hand, if we can think in terms of the unfolding Aquarian paradigm which is recognized by the open heart, revelation will be at hand. If we think of the energy of the heart, love, and how love works, and we realize that love is the primary energy that all Hierarchs carry, we can look out over the world and see the fact of the Hierarchy in action in many, many venues of human life and in many, many places on the planet.

I could make, and have made, a long list of these venues and places. In fact I could make a long list of Hierarchs who are in action right now on the planet. However, my goal, here is to shift consciousness. I think we need to have a consciousness shift from thinking of somebody out there coming in to save us to realizing that the saving grace and salvation are already pouring in through the art of revelation. And furthermore, that it is through the art of revelation, through our works that we are revealing the 5th Kingdom.

What we need to do is to have the courage to 1. accept our roles and 2. to let people know that this is how members of the Hierarchy walk the talk. I recall how Walt Kelly had Pogo say, “We have met the enemy and he is us.”, and I would like to now say. “We have met the Hierarchy and we are it.”

We need a few words about the reappearance, or the revelation of the Christ. Again the problem is the fixation on the form. Esotericists know that there is a very advanced Soul who occupies the “head” office in the 5th Kingdom, the Kingdom of Souls. We call the being who occupies this office the Christ.

We cannot reveal the Hierarchy by proclaiming that it exists. Been there, done that for eons. It does not work.

Many think of the reappearance of the Christ in terms that have this being descending into our dense physical world, our civilizations and cultures and “appearing”. Again, this vision is partly accurate; however, it leaves out the process of creation or the art of revelation. And surely we can all see that this kind of a vision, while serviceable at some levels is very limiting, even veiling as to the true nature of Christ.

The Word Is Love

Christ is, after all, a word for an energy we also know by the name of Love, and somewhat by the names of consciousness, awareness and relationship. It is clearly our function to reveal the Christ through the art of revelation, that is by contacting, embodying and radiating this energy we call Love. Remember, it is “The Christ in us the hope of Glory.”

Again I say, “We have met the Christ and He is in us and will be revealed only through us.”

Practically speaking now—and let us recall, that Love is the most practical energy/force in the Universe—practically speaking if we can shift the consciousness of our brothers and sisters from expecting and looking for these pre-Aquarian forms and idols on to the energetic aspects of these living Beings, we will be going miles and miles towards revealing both the Christ and the Hierarchy.

The Mother of the World

Finally I think we need to do a little unveiling of the Mother of the World, who just happens to be a primary, if not the primary player in the “art of revelation.” It is unthinkable to consider revelation or creation without the presence of the Feminine Principle, the Mother of the World.

I know that many of us see or think of the Mother of the World, as She is depicted in N. Roerich’s masterpiece of that name. In this painting, She appears wearing a veil. And the fact is that She has been in a sense veiled.

First off, I think we need to understand just “Who” the Mother of the World is. The Mother of the World is to the substance of this Planet as the Planetary Logos is to the Guiding Principles of this Planet. She is, in the same sense that Sanat Kumara is, a Cosmic Entity.

Sanat Kumara’s Daily Living

In the following quote, D.K. tried to give us an idea of Sanat Kumara’s daily living “Does it mean anything to you when I say that the ceremonial ritual of the daily life of Sanat Kumara, implemented by music and sound and carried on the waves of color which break upon the shores of the three worlds of human evolution reveal—in the clearest notes and tones and shades—the deepest secret behind His purpose? ...I am not here writing in symbols, but am making an exact statement of fact. As Beauty in any of its greater forms breaks upon the human consciousness, a dim sense is thereby conveyed of the ritual of Sanat Kumara’s daily living.” The Rays and the Initiations P. 246

Although he does not mention it, D.K. is also giving us, in this brief statement of fact, a unique and seldom noticed insight into the daily ritual of the Mother of the World. It is She who implements the Intent of Sanat Kumara. It is She who provides the substance and produces those images of beauty which break upon the human consciousness, and which convey in the “clearest notes and tones and shades—the deepest secret behind His purpose.”

Sanat Kumara is Nothing without the Mother of the World. The Mother of the World is the ocean of substance without His Divine Intent. Together, through the agency of Love, They produce our planet.

So, what is the point here? First of all let us realize that this great entity we call The Mother of the World is not a person, in the same sense that the Christ or Sanat Kumara are not persons. She is the Feminine Principle, a co-equal and totally necessary aspect of the “art of revelation” or any effort to manifest anything from a planet to a poem to right human relations.

This entity, The Feminine Principle has been veiled for at least 1800 years.

While She was veiled, it is my thinking that She never veiled herself. Principles do not do that. She, or the Feminine Principle, was veiled by the progenitors of the Great Lie. Her role in the divine processes of the Planetary life was veiled. The Mother of the World was deliberately hidden. Her divinity was discounted, obfuscated, denied, ridiculed, vilified, and, to get really down to it, She was not only veiled, but made to wear a burka.

We are now entering, it seems to me, the Age of the Mother of the World, or to give it it's common astrological name, the Aquarian Age. As Master M. has indicated, “The era of the Mother of the World is based upon realization of the heart.” That humanity's heart center is opening and doing so more and more rapidly, is obvious to us and explains a great deal of the current goings on the planet. As the Age of the Mother of the World continues to unfold, the Feminine Principle will regain its place of necessity.

A primary objective of the Ashram of Synthesis is to bring a conscious awareness of the new evolution impulse which is driving the unfolding Age into the 4th Kingdom. This includes the recognition of the externalizing Hierarchy and the reappearing Christ Principle within the field we call the 4th Kingdom. These events would not be possible without the complete, unfettered participation of the nurturing energy and self sacrificing service of the Feminine Principle. “Let us not forget that for each important achievement the Feminine Principle is essential as a foundation and essence.” Heart #106 Creation is simply not possible without the Mother of the World.

About this principle which has been veiled for so long, there is much more to say. Stay tuned.
