The Big All & The Exclusive Few

THE MACROCOSM

The first solar system...embodied.....the "I am" principle.

The second solar system..is embodying..the "I am that" principle.

THE MICROCOSM

The first manifestation, the Personality, embodies the "I am" principle.

The second manifestation, the Ego, is embodying the "I am that" principle

A Treatise On Cosmic Fire P. 245

Considering this macro/micro Plan, and looking at the current conditions on Planet Earth it does appear that there is something going on here that is seriously out of whack.

The Big All

We, that is Humanity, have been assured by the Ageless Wisdom and countless ancient and modern Teachers that "All is One." We have and do assert this statement as Divine Truth in thousands of weighty, sacred, and profound tomes. We have and do pay homage to, and make pilgrimages around the tallest mountains, cross the widest oceans and, crawl, on our hands and knees, across burning deserts in the name of this truth. Literally forever, in an unending stream of theological dogma and dogmatics, philosophical treatises, constitutions, dissertations, disquisitions, monographs, tragedies, comedies, operas, symphonies, poems, novels, and recently movies, in virtually every language ever known to us, we have proclaimed that "All is One", and other like expressions are essential facts of Cosmos, let alone this Solar System and this Planet, Earth.

Simultaneously, between the times we call peace--during which we are simply engaged in lying to, stealing from, and or otherwise manipulating each other--we have fought countless bloody wars, killing, conquering, and enslaving each other. All of this went and goes on under banners of various sorts proclaiming the Truth, that All is One, including, of course, the One Humanity.

Friends, something is really weird here. All may be One, but we are still not getting it. Presently, in spite of the ageless and endless blizzard of assurances that all life is inter-connected and, what is more, Divine, it is quite obvious that the majority of us are still simply unconscious and not able to get it. And a small, but powerful minority think and proclaim, in the way they live and act, that this wisdom is naive non-sense.

The Exclusive Few

The attitude of this really tiny minority towards 7 billion of us now living on the planet is that the "All is One" stuff is O.K., fine for the lesser classes. However, this quaint notion is certainly not a consideration for the tiny minority of exclusive individuals who have appropriated and now "own" or control around 90% of the Common Wealth, and pretty much run the place.

So, how did we arrive at this juncture of the Path? We are supposed to be intelligent!

Well, we are intelligent. Intelligence is an obvious and essential ingredient of Life as it manifests on this planet. The very Planet is in fact intelligent. Look at any aspect of the Earth's manifestation: the structures of atoms, and the elements of the mineral kingdom, the beauty, intricacy and diversity of the plant and animal kingdoms, the diversity, complexity and intelligence of the human body, the complexity and beauty of the psychic harmony of how all of these forms and bodies relate to the higher dimensions of Reality.

The planet really is an intelligently manifested unified whole system. This is what intelligence looks like. This is how intelligence creates when guided by Love. What's more, intelligence is, in Beauty and Harmony, Cosmically present.

It is obvious that, being part of the planet, we too are intelligent. And Humanity has generated or "created" intelligent forms on the planet. We can, for example, point to the "wonders" of the ancient worlds as well as to the marvels of our modern cities, and our transportation systems. We can extol the high "standards of living" that our health, educational, commerce, and agricultural systems have provided for some of our brothers and sisters, among numerous other achievements.

All of these marvels were fostered and built through the use of intelligence. Intelligence also propounded the major premises or guiding principles which dominate, motivate and guide the use of our intelligence in the creation of these marvels.

For the majority who do not seem to be aware of much of anything beyond their immediate comfort zones, these controlling principles are the concepts of separation, competition, and the accumulation of power through the ownership of material wealth or property of some kind. We have been assured over and over again

The controlling principles are the concepts of separation, competition, and the accumulation of power through the ownership of material wealth or property of some kind.

that these guiding principles have been arrived at through rigorous intelligent analysis and decision. These premises were, and very largely continue to be, impressed upon us, in each of our separate nations, by the controlling few for whom the notion of a unified whole humanity and world is "pie in the sky."

These premises are the operational corner stones for what constitutes truth, beauty, justice, personal worth, and value in most of the world. And they are mainly the products of humanity's intellectual analysis of how the planet works and what living is about. These intelligently determined cornerstones make it easy for us to ignore the millions of our brothers and sisters who are dropping dead every day from starvation, disease, exposure, and war while millions of others are slipping into useless discouragement and despair. Thus, the premises which drive our civilizations are in fact a veil used to give an apparent logic and justice to them, and to the basic rightness of our actions.

Since the beginning, in the very midst of proclaiming that "All is One" but motivated by the above premises of justification, which are absolutely contrary to the proclamation that All is One, we have been, apparently unconsciously, engaged in uncountable, carefully thought out, planned and executed programs to kill, not only each other but the very planet upon which we live. Consider for a moment

We, that is Humanity, have either been unconsciously and, sort of like the lemmings, blindly following a process that will lead to mass destruction, or we are engaged in an insane, global suicide plot.

just how most of our discoveries in science have been applied: Rather than serving the Common Good, and General Welfare, they are manipulated to enable the "haves and have mores", the minions of retrogression, without so much as a thought about the health and welfare of the Planet or the people, to gain ever more wealth. And if one needs more "evidence," one only needs to look at how these scientific advances have been intelligently adapted to the design and production of highly efficient weapons for killing one person at a time or wiping out entire cities at a stroke.

Realize the irony of this. All of these clever weapons were intelligently designed by all of us to defend and protect ourselves from all of our other selves whom we know--because they are motivated by the same forces that motivate us--for absolute certain that they want to do us in, take our stuff, and deny our liberty. Again, there is something basically wrong with this picture. The only conclusion that can be drawn from these facts is that either a very large portion of Humanity is simply ignorant or unconscious and is not able to understand the reality of unified wholes; or else we are basically insane.

Our Path in this Second Solar System is to "lead from the darkness to the Light, from the unreal to the Real and from death to Immortality." Well, darkness, unreality and death come in lots of different sizes, shapes and colors.

Intelligently Irrational

Our predominant and controlling mental predisposition, while highly intelligent, is basically irrational. It does not enable us to anticipate and judge the result which the chain of cause and effect to which we are and have always been attached will inevitably lead. Over the eons we have habitually and consistently continued to do things, take actions, engage in activities, and base our programs and institutions on premises that are wrong at their base and will destroy us, if not the whole Planet. We, that is Humanity, have either been unconsciously and, sort of like the lemmings, blindly following a process that will lead to mass destruction, or we are engaged in an insane, global suicide plot.

The root of this problem seems to be our ancient hang-up on and identification with intelligence. As the Lore informs us, Intelligence, was brought to its highest point of development in the first Solar system. "For the first solar system, the third ray [of active Intelligence] was the synthetic ray...." Esoteric Psychology 1 P.88

We exhibit all the symptoms of an addiction to the use of and reliance on intelligence to guide our actions. For example, our science works on the concept of induction. It basically denies the reality of the more subtle dimensions of Cosmos. Thus, being boxed in by this narrow minded focus, we are cut off from Reality. We insist on having dense physical "proof" of everything; therefore, huge living Principles of Cosmic Physics are ignored as non-sense or unverifiable idealism.

"As a man thinketh in the heart, so is he."

Students of the Wisdom will recall the decision of the Arrogant Few at the close of the first System who, "so conditioned by the material principles," chose to retain the power of the intellect that had been developed to its highest possible point and refused to go forward into a new dimension of Life. A "planned distortion of the divine will was intelligently created by them." The Rays And The Initiations P.350-351

This is that same arrogance, born of our hubris regarding our intelligence, that today blows off the Ageless Wisdom as naive non-sense and turns a blind eye to the easily observable and documentable fact that All actually is One.

I am haunted by shades of John Milton's Paradise Lost where, after being defeated, Satan arrogantly proclaims "The mind is its own place, and in itself/ Can make a Heaven of Hell, a Hell of Heaven". It is now, just as it was then, our ignorant and arrogant (One wonders, can arrogance be anything other than ignorant?) use of intelligence to determine and set values that is killing us.

Actually, as we can easily see by looking at our own planet, intelligence is the manifesting, nurturing sustaining energy of cosmos. Intelligence is an energy that builds exquisitely functioning forms. "The first solar system embodied the "I Am" principle. The first manifestation, the Personality, embodies the "I am" principle." Treatise On Cosmic Fire p.245

It is our addiction or fixation on intelligence that is used to manipulate our decision making processes. To understand this, it is necessary to make a clear cut discrimination between rationality and intelligence. That the rational always manifests through intelligence, is true. That what is manifested through intelligence is always rational, is not true.

However, intelligence is not an energy that discriminates between the Good of the Whole and the not good, between Justice and crime, between Freedom and slavery. Intelligence does not consider the value or morality of how the forms which it will be used to create will be used. Such consideration is a function of rationality. It is a function, not of the intellect but of the heart. The ancient comment is, "As a man thinketh in the heart, so is he." Master M. cautions us to listen with all three ears, the heart being the third ear.

I know that it is not easy for us to understand that it is the heart that thinks rather than the mind. The mind divides, categorizes, organizes and builds. It processes data and creates forms. This is "not thinking." It is data processing, at instant speeds, but still data processing. Being "mindful" is not a guarantee that one will be rational or heartfelt!

The Cosmic progression from thinking into form is Soul, mind, brain. In a word, intelligence is simply not rational. It does not do rationality. Intelligence produces and endeavors to sustain beautifully effective highly functional forms of whatever it is directed to build from a machine gun to a rose. We cannot build a functioning sustainable planet by using intelligence to determine the basic principles which the form of the planet will embody. Only the heart, or the Soul, or the Spirit can show the way into the future, which, by the way, for humanity and this planet is a place, not in time like an Age, but in consciousness.

Divine Intelligence

This Solar System came into manifestation through the use of Divine Intelligence. In the Physics of Energy, Divine Intelligence is identified as the Third Cosmic Ray of Aspect, the Ray of Good Will, the Ray of the Divine Mother. However, Intelligence was not the Ray that provided the Purpose of the System or of this planet. In this system that would be the Second Ray of Aspect or Love Wisdom. This System and this Planet will embody the "I AM That" Principle. The second manifestation will be the Ego or Soul embodying the "I Am That Principle." Treatise On Cosmic Fire p.245

Intelligence is all about the building, the manifestation, the birth, modification, and adaptation of forms. Evolution is not about the modifications of form; it is about the expansion of Consciousness.

Consciousness expands through a Cosmic communication system of magnetic radiant Heart Centers into the Synthesis that is.

As Consciousness expands it encompasses a greater awareness and understanding of its Purpose, location and position in Cosmos. It directs intelligence to build the forms it needs to manifest that state in the three dense worlds. The expansion of consciousness is a rational chain of cause and effect. It proceeds through a process of inclusive recognition and sustainable manifestation of continually larger wholes.

Each new understanding, each expansion is a revelation generated by the increasing Light that the tension of inexhaustible striving or Love attracts from the Intention of the Cosmic Magnet. Consciousness expands through a Cosmic communication system of magnetic radiant Heart Centers into the Synthesis that is. Each new revelation is eventually made manifest or birthed into form through the Cosmic Mother or Intelligence.

Basically, we have been working to move out of the "planned distortion", the darkness, unreality, and death, generated by the Retrogressors from the beginning. The total and exclusive focus of consciousness on the physical plane as the only reality, and the premises of separation, competition, and the amassing of power through the acquisition and ownership of property are the foundations of that distortion. These foundations create conditions in which essential Divinity, harmony, balance, unity, and equality are not possible.

On those foundations, one must be separate from, not equal to. To be separate from, one is either more than or less than the other. Thus, the natural harmony, and beauty of essential Divinity in the endless diversity of the One Life is denied.

The very diversity of Life is used to generate the illusory condition of constant struggle or war in which the goal is to be superior to all others. All of the attitudes of superiority and inferiority, hatreds, xenophobia, all of the wrong human relations we know as racism, sexism, ageism, and so on, were born in and are nested in these planned distortions.

Recall that Intelligence is the feminine or receptive birthing aspect of the creative cycle. It is the Third Aspect, the receptive or negative pole of the Cosmic magnet. Will to Good, or Divine Intention, the First Aspect, moves through the Will to Love, the Second Aspect, into Goodwill or the will to manifest. Intelligence is what we call the Mother Aspect.

The systematic destruction and domination of the feminine principle by the wrong use of Intellect to create modifications of form which are consciously planned to go against evolution, against harmony and beauty is what lies at the bottom of the insanity which I have been documenting.

Intelligence is not the problem. Women are not vessels of sin or guilty of anything. Men are not enslavers of women and perpetrators of the darkness and death that has stalked our planet from the beginning. We are all victims of the Great Lie, that "planned distortion of the divine will [that] was intelligently created" by those who refused to move, not into the "new age," but into the New Dimension of Love.

This move is the move which Humanity is now executing. Many are aware of it on various levels. Some call it the "Shift"! This move is not transmutation or transformation. It is the transfiguration of Intellect into Intuition which births Love Wisdom. It is the transfiguration of personality into Soul. It is, finally, after a really long wait and a couple of tries, the flowering of the Second Solar System on Planet Earth.

As it was destined from the beginning to be, the heart-focused and guided use of intelligence to build sane institutions that foster and support the Common Good and the General Welfare is gaining space in consciousness. Some of the most obvious examples of these gains in recent history were the December 1865 ratification of the Thirteenth Amendment which made slavery illegal everywhere in the U.S., the ratification by a sufficient number of states in 1920 of the Nineteenth Amendment, which gave all women the vote, the founding of the United Nations in 1945, and the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women in 1979.

This establishing of right human relations, of bringing balance and sanity into our creative processes is our Salvation. And, Friends, as we continue to guide the race through the heart, we will uncover intelligence on a level that we can now only imagine.

Starships are child's toys. Intelligence can build planets, solar systems, galaxies. We actually know next to nothing about intelligence. Arrogance is ignorance.

So, the best is yet to come, but it is finally and definitely on its way. We need only remember that each new understanding, each expansion of consciousness is a revelation generated by the increasing Light that the tension of inexhaustible striving or Love attracts from the Intention of the Cosmic Magnet.

Meat bound Man,
Caught in this fleshy density,
Imprisoned behind these bones,
Peering through pulpy eyes,
Arrogantly proclaims,
"I Am."

While still meat bound, man—
One level living, and that the least—
Cannot see the unfolding Plan.

But freed finally from form,
And finally, finely formed—
Exquisitely shaped,
With sinews of light
And eyes of fire—
He stands before the Open Heart.

A seven hued Ray streams from the sky.
I am That, he cries, and That am I.
