Group Meditation Work

November 22, through December 21, 2014

Today we find this ray energy [5th Ray] expressing itself mainly through science—a science sadly debased and corrupted by materialism and human greed, but a science which (when animated entirely by goodwill) will lift humanity on to higher levels of consciousness, thus laying the foundation for that time when humanity on a large scale can pass through the Transfiguration Initiation. The Rays And The Initiations p.595

December 22, through January 20, 2015

Whoever loves flowers is on the heart's path. Whoever knows the striving to the summits is on the heart's path. Whoever thinks purely is on the heart's path. Whoever knows of the highest worlds is on the heart's path. Whoever is ready for Infinity is on the heart's path. Thus shall we summon all hearts to the realization of the Source. It is correct to understand that the substance of the heart belongs to the Subtle and also the Fiery World. One can perceive worlds within the heart, but not within the mind. Thus, wisdom is contrary to intellect, yet it is not forbidden to adorn the mind with wisdom." Heart, 390

Toward The Day!

If one were to go by the news reports, many of our co-workers were let down and discouraged by the results of the recent elections in the United States. These results were certainly not what I was looking for; however, having been at this point many times in just this incarnation, my typical response to these kinds of results is to look at them as experience, as data regarding the experiment we had just gone through.

We worked with positive motives. These were the results we received. They say something that we need to understand. Discouragement, we all realize, makes for a very poor window.

All experimentation produces “results”, that is, data that is neither good or bad, just revelatory; i.e., “What your doing is not working, brother. Perhaps you would like to try something else?” So, looking from a more detached point of view, several things regarding this experiment have come to light. And I am not thinking just about the election, but all of our ongoing experiments in group energy direction supporting the Common Good including the cleaning of the Capitol.

For me perhaps the biggest was a jolt about working without attachment to the results. Wanting or wishing for something gets the personality involved. It clouds the clarity and objectivity and sets up either disappointment and discouragement or in the event that the effort was successful, self approval... even pride. Not a good idea.

The next was a realization of how badly we needed to see the data produced by this apparent disaster.

The process of the unfolding Plan is to construct a new civilization. In order for that to happen the discordant or inharmonious aspects of the present civilization need to be “crystal” clear. The pairs of opposites need to be obvious in the extreme. This is one reason the Retrogressors work so hard to obfuscate the Principles, or the “Self Evident Truths” such as Freedom which they put forth as the freedom to take as much as one can for his or her exclusive use regardless of how it effects the needs of others. Other examples abound!

The process of the unfolding Plan is to construct a new civilization. In order for that to happen the discordant or inharmonious aspects of the present civilization need to be “crystal” clear. The pairs of opposites need to be obvious in the extreme.

Many of those presently in the U.S. Congress and Senate work from obfuscated positions of halfwayness. They barter their support for so called social programs in exchange for support of draconian programs which undermine and endanger the entire network of civilization. Their goal is personal reelection and the continued ability to feed at the public trough.

These individuals are a much greater problem than those who are outright and obviously opposed to the Common Good on any level. These halfway people make any kind of group work very difficult. Although loved by the Retrogressors, a number of these halfway individuals have been replaced by those who are clearly opposed to the Common Good.

Those who do work for the common good have often been left with the poorest possible compromises to get anywhere at all. It is very difficult for those who are not involved in the daily battles to realize that a step, even a small step, in the direction of victory is preferable to "dying on a hill." Warriors of experience will not hesitate to give their lives when it is the only option. However only a fool, or an inexperienced warrior, will choose to die for glory before all other paths to victory have been exhausted.

These debilitating conditions, however relatively obscure, have always been present in all of our democratic governments; but most of the time small progress was possible. However, in the past two decades or so the Retrogressive forces have greatly energized their efforts, and the numbers of extremely intransigent individuals who harbor greatly increased reactionary positions have become extreme.

The results of the election will make the belligerent voices of retrogression much louder and much more identifiable. This is how M.M. puts it. "Each intensified force has its purpose. The bridges consolidated by the enemy are the best ascent. Only when all adversaries are strained in opposition can the greatest plan be introduced into life. Thus, every foundation employs Tactica Adversa."

Infinity II, # 372

We have entered what to me will be the decade of climax. It will not be a decade of change or shift. These all too often have simply been a shifting of stage sets and a change of costumes for the next scene of the dreadfully long tragedy though which we have been living. This decade will be the relatively short fifth act of that tragedy. This will be a decade in which we will see the very foundations of the old play demolished and reconstructed. And true to Master R's (né Shakespeare) sense of the Path, springing from the winter and rubble of our pain and the lessons of eons, the dénouement will introduce the first act of a brand new play.

So, friends, take heart. Our work takes on a new intensity. The next two years will be the first scenes in that last act. The fat is in the fire! Alea iacta est! The scales have been tipped! Il dado è tratto! We are burning our bridges behind us. The only Way now is forward.

Through the heart now, we move, out of Scorpio into Sagittarius. We know which way the wind blows. The Retrogressors, armored in the illusory glamour and glitter of their election victories, are already loading up the mental and astral planes with their thoughtforms of euphuisms and sophistry.

Thinking in the heart, makes it all the more easy to see.

Our arrows of thought are nocked. The target is "crystal" clear. All the more easy to shatter.

"Thought is the basis of creativeness. It can be visible and measured. One has to regard thought as the creation of independent action... thought is a newborn entity of the spiritual plane. Notice, thought is not an abstraction, not a substance, but an entity with all the signs of a self-sufficient existence. As an entity of the spiritual plane, thought cannot be annihilated. It can be opposed by a similar entity of greater potentiality. In this lies the essence of Tactica Adversa, when a monster is permitted to attain its complete ugliness in order that afterward it may be destroyed by a ray of Light. Hierarchy #211
